Becoming a paediatric registered nurse and working at women's and children's!

I'm also a reiki practitioner!

I stopped singing after high school for years.... But I have started again!

I hold sound baths with crystal bowls and sing with them too! I educate others on nervous system regulation and all things spirituality!

I have a strong passion in holding space for women from teenage hood to adulthood. With a big focus on the female cycle and how it affects us! I'm also posting singing videos on instagram and sharing my voice more!

ANY TIPS FOR OUR FUTURE GRADUATING STUDENTS?

You don't have to have everything figured out. If you change your mind about what you want to study or do after high school, that's okay! Be kind to yourself. Nurture yourself as you transition into adulthood because that shit is hard. But you'll be okay!
